Connect with community businesses, services and resources that help people with a developmental disability live the life of their choice.

Open to everyone who wants to learn more about what their community has to offer. A great opportunity to network with more than 60 community businesses and service providers. This event is especially helpful for people with a developmental disability, their families, friends, support networks, support staff, teachers, students, and workers-in-training.

Find us on Facebook for updates and participating vendors

Have a product, service or organization that should be known to people with disabilities and their support networks? Join us as an exhibitor.

To be an exhibitor or if you have questions about the event, contact:
